

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow has appointed DR LOW CHEE KWANG as its International Adviser for Singapore, for a period of 4 years, from November 2002 – November 2006.

The role of International Adviser is as follows:

- To provide knowledge about College, its background, roles and functions.
- To inform colleagues about the College activities and encourage participation.
- To assist the College in the dissemination of information on training, education and examinations.
- To help in the organisation and execution of College activities overseas.
- To represent local medical opinion to College.
- To advise College on nominations to the Fellowship.
- To advise College on nominations to College Committees, examiners panels and other bodies, both internal and external.

Doctors who require assistance may contact Dr Low at 9181 7296.