What you do for your patients today will help them prepare for their future.

Help your patients plan ahead through an LPA now and protect their interests should they lose their mental capacity in the future.

X You should not certify an LPA if you are related to the donor or donee, as per Section 7(2) of the Mental Capacity Regulations.

✓ Doctors may use the Medical Report for Activation of LPA to assess the mental capacity of the donor. This form can be found at <https://www.publicguardian.gov.sg>.
