SMA Seminar:
Tax Obligations on Medical Practice

For Doctors, For Patients

Date: 31 March 2018, Saturday
Time: 1 pm to 5 pm
Venue: M Hotel Singapore,
Banquet Suite (Level 10)*

CME Points: 2 (Pending approval from SMC)

• What are the tax obligations of a clinic set up as a business or as a company?

• Is one better than the other in the current tax regime?

• What's new in the 2018 Singapore Budget and can you take advantage of it to future-ready your practice?

Answers to these questions, and more, will be explored by our invited speakers during this seminar.

Who should attend?

Private practice practitioners, clinic owners (especially new owners and those not represented by tax agents) and staff who assist in clinic tax and corporate matters will benefit from this seminar. You will gain basic understanding of this topic to better manage the medical practice and to fulfil its required tax obligations.
