

SINGAPORE ACADEMY OF LAW

Presents

LAW-MEDICAL DEBATE

Topic:

“Lawyers Make Better Politicians Than Doctors”

Date & Time:

Friday, 11 July 2003, 7.00pm - 9.30pm

(Registration begins 15 minutes before the event)

Venue:

Parliament House Auditorium, 2nd Level

Programme:

6.45 pm - 7.00 pm Registration

7.00 pm - 8.00 pm Cocktail

8.00 pm - 9.00 pm Debate

9.00 pm - 9.30 pm Prize-Giving Ceremony

INTRODUCTION

The Singapore Academy of Law Membership and Social Committee is proud to present its inaugural debate with the medical Alumni Association.

Come and enjoy a splendid evening of wit, humour and sparkling repartée when the members of the Singapore Academy of Law engage the members of the medical Alumni Association in a debate on whether it is the doctors or lawyers who make better politicians.

This event is an opportunity for the members of the legal fraternity and the members of the medical profession to meet socially and to foster closer ties with members of the medical community.

SPEAKERS

The debaters representing the Academy are

Mr Chelva Rajah SC

Professor Leong Wai Kum

Mr Adrian Tan

Mr Christopher Ong Siu Jin

From the medical profession, the speakers are

Dr Lee Chung Horn

Dr Toh Han Chong

Dr Sreedharan

Dr Umapathi Thirunagham

JUDGES

The judges for this event are Dr Jennifer Lee, Ms Fang Ai Lian and an eminent luminary from the legal profession.

CHAIRPERSON

The chairperson is the renowned local author Dr Catherine Lim.

REGISTRATION

Please contact the Alumni at Tel: 6223 4680, Fax: 6224 8374 or
Email: malumni@starhub.net.sg

SEATS ARE LIMITED.

Registration is on a FIRST-COME-FIRST-SERVED basis.