

Singapore Medical Association 6th Ethics Essay Award

“Is Medicine a Profession or a Business?”

The SMA Ethics Essay Award is intended to encourage students in Singapore to research and review the important aspects of medical ethics.

There are two categories:

Category 1 – Non-medical students

Category 2 – Medical students

Winners of each category will receive a cash award of S$1,000.

All students who are studying in local tertiary institutions – Universities (NUS, NTU, SMU, SIM), Polytechnics and Junior Colleges, are eligible for participation.

The essay should be of single authorship, of 2,000 to 2,500 words, and complete with a list of references.

Deadline for Submission: 15 August 2005

Please download a copy of the application form from our website at www.sma.org.sg or Call 6223-1264.

Organised by:

Singapore Medical Association
Centre for Medical Ethics and Professionalism